

CITADEL NEWS SERVICE

13 May 2010

MBA student named to Business Journal's Forty Under 40

MBA student Abby Leibowitz has been named to the Charleston Regional Business Journal's Forty Under 40 -- outstanding community and business leaders honored for their commitment to professional, personal and philanthropic endeavors.

A native of Charleston, Leibowitz is executive vice president of Call Experts, a 24/7 local call center and answering service that was founded in 1982. Call Experts provides free service to several local charities, such as the Coastal Crisis Chaplaincy, Lowcountry Children's Center, People Against Rape and the Ronald McDonald House.

Leibowitz is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Pa., where she received a bachelor's degree in government and English. In August she will graduate from The Citadel Graduate College with a master's in business administration. This year she served as executive assistant to the MBA Association in the School of Business Administration.

The Forty Under 40 honorees were recognized during a networking event on May 13 at The Landing on Shem Creek in Mount Pleasant. To learn more about Leibowitz and why she was selected for the 2010 Forty Under 40, click here.

Achieving excellence in the education of principled leaders

For more information:
Charlene Gunnells
charlene.gunnells@citadel.edu
(843) 953-2155

Related links:
news.citadel.edu - News and Events
externalaffairs.citadel.edu - External Affairs
<http://www.citadel.edu/> - Home page